

BRINGING BOOKS TO CHILDREN

Awarded the 2002 Espiritu Award for Literacy by the Isabel Allende Foundation.

Bring Me A Book Oakland & the East Bay

BMAB Oakland & East Bay Fast Facts

Since 2004, Bring Me A Book has served state funded preschools, Head Starts, Child Development Centers, elementary schools (K – 3rd), community centers, clinics and shelters in Oakland and the greater East Bay. To date Bring Me A Book Oakland & the East Bay has provided:

- 245 Bookcase Libraries
- 32 First Teachers
- 5,000 children impacted through Bookcase Libraries
- 700 parents & caregivers impacted through First Teachers
- 8,000 new books provided throughout Oakland and the East Bay

What's New in Oakland & the East Bay

Bring Me A Book receives an East Bay Community Foundation grant to expand Bookcase Library and First Teachers Programs to Hayward!

BMAB Oakland & the East Bay Supporters

- Oakland Fund for Children and Youth
- The East Bay Community Foundation
- The Rogers Family Foundation
- The Yahoo! Employee Foundation
- The HEDCO Foundation
- The Clorox Company Foundation
- The Kenneth Rainin Foundation
- Kaiser Permanente
- Oakland A's Community Foundation

Thank you to our many individual donors making an impact in Oakland and the East Bay!

Oakland & East Bay Partnerships

To deliver our programs in Oakland and the East Bay, BMAB partners with:

- Oakland Ready to Learn
- Faith Network of the East Bay
- Jewish Literacy Coalition of Oakland
- Oakland Parents Literacy Program
- Kappa Alpha Psi
- Eastside Arts Alliance
- Intertribal Friendship House
- Allen Temple Baptist Church
- Oakland Unified School District
- Oakland Dept. of Human Services – Early Head Start Centers

And many more!