

BRINGING BOOKS TO CHILDREN

Awarded the 2002 Espiritu Award for Literacy by the Isabel Allende Foundation.

Bring Me A Book San Francisco & Marin County

Bring Me A Book San Francisco & Marin County

Since 2004 Bring Me A Book has been serving state funded preschools, Head Starts, Child Development Centers, Kindergarten classrooms, and community centers in San Francisco and Marin County. To date Bring Me A Book San Francisco & Marin County has provided:

- 130 Bookcase Libraries
- 55 First Teachers Workshops
- 2,600 children impacted through Bookcase Libraries
- 1,400 parents & caregivers impacted through First Teachers
- 5,000 new books provided throughout San Francisco and Marin County

What's New in San Francisco & Marin County

San Francisco 49er Joe Staley Partners with BMAB to Read Aloud at Candlestick Park!

<http://www.bringmeabook.org/whats-new.html>

BMAB Marin in Partnership with First 5 Marin Completes the Shoreline Program with 6 Bookcase Libraries and 12 First Teachers Workshops!

San Francisco & Marin County Supporters

- The San Francisco Foundation
- The San Francisco 49ers Foundation
- Andrew Hsu
- The Marin Community Foundation
- GGS Foundation
- First 5 Marin
- Wells Fargo
- The Morris Family Foundation
- The Guardsmen
- Marin County Supervisors Office

Thank you to our many individual donors making an impact in San Francisco and Marin County!

San Francisco & Marin County Partnerships

To deliver our programs in San Francisco and Marin County, BMAB partners with:

- Parent Services Project
- Raising A Reader
- Marin County Office of Education
- First 5 School Readiness Program
- Marin County School Districts of Novato, San Rafael, Shoreline and Marin City
- San Francisco Unified School District Head Start
- Raising A Reader
- Jewish Coalition of Literacy Early Literacy Network

And many more!