

Bring Me A Book's Virtuous Circle of Support for Community Literacy Advocacy

The Literacy Advocate

Individuals • Nonprofits
Service Organizations
Faith-Based Organizations

Community Partners

Government Agencies
(schools, libraries, public health clinics)
Nonprofits • NGOs
Service Organizations
Professional
Support

Book Access

Bring Me A Book
Bookelicious*
School and Public Libraries

Funders

Individuals
Corporations
Small Businesses
Family Foundations
Community Funds

Socially responsible

Bookelicious shares revenue with nonprofit Bring Me A Book which, in turn, reinvests in books for children in under-resourced communities.

The Power of Community Literacy Advocacy

Literacy benefits the individual, the family, the community, and society at large. Community literacy works best when it:

- Responds to community needs
- Invites community participation
- Is sustainable